

DUKE UNIVERSITY

TENTATIVE APPROVAL OF INSTITUTIONAL TRANSFER COURSES TAKEN AT ANOTHER APPROVED INSTITUTION

NOTE TO THE STUDENT: Fill out the top part of this form, submit the form first to the Global Education Office (only if this is an institution outside the US), then to the DUS or Department, along with a course description or syllabus (if available), and finally, to your academic dean along with a calendar or when the class will be taught. Students who are on academic dismissal are able to take institutional credits in their permanent place of residence (i.e. within the US or student's home country), if they do not have any outstanding incompletes. Your dean will check all requirements, give final approval, and process it in accordance with established procedures. When you complete the course, arrange to have a transcript from the institution attended sent to the Duke Office of the Registrar (Trinity students) or to the Pratt Undergraduate Dean's Office (Pratt students).

A maximum of two credits in Trinity College and four credits in Pratt can be transferred from another accredited institution to Duke after matriculation.
